February Social Meeting: Annual Fabric Swap

Whether your priority is destashing, stash enhancement, or socializing, you won't want to miss our annual fabric swap.

Bring any quilting-quality 100% cotton fabrics you no longer love. Take home some new-to-you fabrics. Find inspiration. Raid the scrap heap. Have fun.

But make sure no scrap is left behind – anything that doesn't go to a new home will go to Charity Sharity.

Scrap Heap

The social meeting and fabric swap will be held on Feb. 23 at 7:00pm at the home of Carolyn Birge. Note: this is the fourth Tuesday, not our usual third Tuesday.

Program NotesFebruary Social Meeting: Annual Fabric Swap

February 23, 7:00pm, at Carolyn Birge's home. Note that this is the fourth Tuesday in February, not our usual third Tuesday.

March: Jan Ochterbeck, Cut and Shuffle Quilts trunk show.

Jan will introduce the Block Mama featured in her book Cut and Shuffle Quilts as the starting point for varied blocks and quilts, and the story of how this book came to be. Hint: would never have happened without the influence of one of CSQ's departed members.

April

No social meeting due to the AQS Show in Paducah the same week the social meeting would ordinarily be held.

May: Short talks by some of the quilters who won top prizes in the 2015 show. This has been a popular program after previous quilt shows, when winners shared their winning quilts and the making of them.

Snippets & Scraps

Due to the cancellation of the January CSQ meeting, voting to accept the 2016-17 slate of officers and committee chairs will be held at the March meeting. The 2016-17 officers and committee chairs are listed in the sidebar at left. A volunteer for Historian is still needed.

From Lois Hays:

We need a volunteer, or volunteers, to "lead the charge" for the Quilt Challenge in October. This requires coming up with a "theme" and guidelines (if any) to be presented at the March 2016 meeting so that people can get started and have their quilts completed by the October 2016 meeting. It also requires some effort to get them displayed and prepare for members to vote for their favorites. There is always plenty of help in that area, so it is not a terribly labor intensive task. If you would like to volunteer, please let Carol Peck (VP/Program Chair) and Cherie Moore (President) know as soon as possible.

From Clara Asnes:

According to my records, we sold a total of $1859 tickets for "Dazzling in Red".

Sold by CSQ Members:	$1140
Sold by Mail:	392
Sold at the Library:	327
	$ 1859

January 2016 Council Meeting Minutes

Vivienne Mazzotta

On January 12, 2016 at 7:50, the outgoing president, Carol Peck, called the meeting to order after a potluck dinner at Vivienne Mazzotta's condo. In attendance were Carol Peck, Lois Hays, Debra Lewis, Karen Luebbert, Jan Ochterbeck, Janet Singer, Cheri Moore, Robin Stewart, Meekee McDougald, Gwen Clopton, Jeanne Wilton, and Vivienne Mazzotta.

Financial concerns were taken care of and Robin Stewart said the balance from last year was $3,763. The slot for Historian is still open and a call for volunteers will be announced at the next meeting. A volunteer is also needed for the Quilt Challenge. At the February social meeting, Carolyn Birge will host a material swap at her home. The January meeting will feature Ruth Hanson and a display of her sewing skills of handmade wedding gowns. The meeting was turned over to Cheri Moore, the new 2016 president. The meeting adjourned at 8:50.

Due to inclement weather, the January CSQ meeting was cancelled.
